The events will bring knowledge and awareness of how the arts can help young people and provide them with skills to use the arts as a vehicle to help guide with social and emotional skill building. The m.a.r.y. events bring professionals and children together to help teach and guide them. Most of the children participating in the program are residents of and/or students in Tarzana, Reseda, and Encino. This March event will provide a watercolor workshop and also teach the youth how a live art auction works and how to manage their money once a piece of their art has sold.
 Admission and parking for the events are free making this tradition accessible to all.
 Your funds will help m.a.r.y. to continue with our 3rd annual Eat, Drink & Be m.a.r.y. event workshop and inspire young peoples' interest in the arts and bring family and friends together for a community event of expression and creativity.
